

CERCELARU OANA DANIELA

TRANSLATOR, DESIGNER, WRITER

SUMMARY

I am passionate about the art of translation, design and literature - over time I have translated from various fields into English and French. I am a creative person but in the same time well organized - I respect deadlines and I am conscientiously involved in fulfilling the assigned tasks.

Design and digital art are other areas that fascinate me - I can always create an original logo or a quality illustration.
