EXPERIENCE

2013 – Today Wayda Films

Writing and editing of the script for The 6th of November, a movie based on my literary debut. Furthermore, this script will be translated into English with my monitoring and assistance.

2013 – 2014

Self-translation of my first work, 6 de Noviembre, into English: The 6th of November

2013 The Ebersole Hughes Company

Proof-reading of the synopsis in Spanish of Dear Mom, Love Cher. Due to the gross mistakes of the original text, I decided to volunteer by sending the producer a fully grammatical version of such synopsis. David Ebersole thanked me for the help I rendered.

July – December 2013 *Publisher and Editor at Editorial Seleer Publishing Group (English Department)

During the sixth-month period that I worked for the company, fifteen books have been successfully edited by the company. They were published as limited editions in the UK, USA and Lebanon.

I decided to pursue my literary career and I left the company. Nonetheless, I am now working toward opening my own publishing company.
