

Curriculum Vitae

Personal Data

Name: Ronen Eliav (Winograd)
D.O.B: August 31, 1957
Address: 99 Irussim St., Reut 71799, Israel. Tel/Fax: 972-8-9261759
e-mail: eliav@netvision.net.il
Languages: Hebrew and English (Fluent), French (Basic)

Basic Education and Military Service

1963-69: Aussishkin Elementary School, Ramat-Hasharon
1969-75: Aliance High School, Tel-Aviv, Biology Department
1975-76: Flying Course, Israeli Air-Force
1976-79: Load Master, Air Transportation Corps

Academic Studies

1978-79: Law School - Tel-Aviv University
1981-83: B.Sc. in Agricultural Economics - Texas A&M University
1984-85: Towards M.Sc. in Phytopathology and Research Methods - Hebrew University
1986: Electroplating - LeaRonol Research Labs, Buxton, England
1992-94: Diploma Studies in Translation - Bar-Ilan University

Professional Experience

1982-83: Texas A&M University - Help Desk: Provide assistance to students in running research and academic computer programs.
1983-85: Agricultural Research Center - Statistics and Experiment Design:

- Agricultural models planning, building and implementation
- Translation and editing of research papers.

1986-92: LeaRonol - Chemicals for Electronics:

- Set-up and management of an analytical lab for testing electroplating processes for printed circuit boards.
- Local production of LeaRonol products.

Since 1992: English/Hebrew translation of professional books and texts in Technology, Computers, Law, Biological Sciences, Medical and Pharmaceuticals, Economics and Business. Over 20 software and hardware computer books and user manuals translated and published. More than 10 best-selling fiction works translated and published. Member of ITA - Israel Translators Association.

Own Publications

A Model for Simulation of Potato Growth on the Plant Community Level - Agricultural Systems 18, No. 2, 1985
Silver Electroforming - LeaRonol International News, Oct. 1991