

LocaTran Translations offers translation services for all your deliverables, specializing in the languages and cultures of your customers. We have helped hundreds of leading companies in diverse industries prepare products and content to accelerate their global growth and opportunity. For more than 10 years we have been helping companies express themselves in any language. In fact, LocaTran Translations annually translates over 5000 documents, primarily for the manufacturing, engineering, financial, legal, medical, IT and communications sectors. That's over 40 million words!

Languages offered include:

English, Chinese (Mandarin & Cantonese), Japanese, Korean, Vietnamese, Thai, Indonesian, Malay, German, French, Italian, Spanish, Dutch, Portuguese, Danish, Swedish, Norwegian, Finnish, Polish, Hungarian, Czech, Romanian, Slovak, Russian, Burmese, Bengali, Khmer (Cambodian), Hindi, Hmong, Laotian, Mongolian, Nepali, Tagalog (Pilipino), Arabic, Persian (Farsi), Hebrew, Albanian, Bosnian, Bulgarian, Croatian, Estonian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Macedonian, Serbian, Slovenian, Ukrainian, Kazakh, Uzbek, Turkish, etc.

Document Translation

We help you speak the language of your global marketplace. Nearly 1000 in-country translators, editors and reviewers are at your service for all your translation needs in more than 80 languages. We can localize content for everything from contract, marketing materials, user manual, software applications, to websites.

Patent Translation

We annually translate more than 5000 patents and IP-related documents from production sites in Shanghai, Suzhou and Nanjing offices. All translations are carried out by subject specialists who have been additionally trained for patent work.

Software Localization

LocaTran Translations is renowned for translating technical material for any medium. Of course we can translate printed documents for any purpose, but we can also do the job of localizing your software and help files as well. Using the same skills and resources as we do for print, we can keep your software up to date too.

Interpretation Services

Whether a client requires simultaneous interpretation for large conferences or consecutive interpretation for depositions or meetings, that client must have complete confidence in their interpreter's skills. LocaTran Translations selects from among the most highly qualified interpreters to meet our clients' needs in any location of China. We can also provide on-site coordination and interpreting equipment. Whether you request interpretation services weeks in advance or on short notice, our client service professionals are ready to assign the best interpreters to meet your needs.

Desktop Publishing (DTP)

We offer our clients a full range of Desktop Publishing (DTP) services, including page layout and design, typesetting, printing and creating files in a variety of formats. We are highly experienced in text and image processing, desktop publishing and, of course, the operation and management of specialized software used in our field. Our in-house Desktop Publishing team works together with our translation experts to ensure that the final product looks exactly the same as the original document.
