ABOUT US

Translate Gurus is an integrated, multilingual language solution specialist and provider of language, research and project management solutions to the corporate sector. We pride ourselves on bringing unique, competitively-priced and flexible services to the marketplace, putting the customer's needs first, and remaining true to the ethics of the language profession.

Our own expert team of researchers, project managers and linguists can work with you to deliver fast, accurate, fit-for-purpose projects. With the help of the network of multilingual researchers, we are committed to cutting through the red tape and finding the most effective solutions for our international clients

We service large corporations and small business, government departments, exporters, advertising agencies, publishing houses, printing companies, law firms and individuals. A strict code of ethics applies to all translators and editors.

All documents are treated confidentially. We handpick the translator team that specializes in the topic of your industry and project.

A dedicated multilingual project manager will co-ordinate every aspect of your project and ensures delivery of your translations On Time, On Brief and On Budget

We offer professional translation services in major International languages with an assurance of top-quality as the translations are carried out by the native, highly qualified, experienced and professional translators.

To ensure accuracy of the translated documents, all our translations are checked and approved by a second independent linguist before they are delivered to the client. TRANSLATE GURUS appoints a project manager for each assignment. A project manager will hook up with your staff and our translators just to ensure that the job is done perfectly and to your utmost satisfaction.

We work on latest translation memory tools such as SDL Trados, Wordfast, Idiom Server, Alchemy etc. which enables us to maintain consistency and perfection in the terminology and client specific glossary.

If you are planning to expand your business across the borders, you can face a huge yet potentially rewarding challenge and there is a wide possibility that you'd need the services of a professional linguistic company like TRANSLATE GURUS. As your experienced translation partner, we really understand variation between different languages and cultures and we make sure that you make a mark in the new market as well.

TRANSLATE GURUS is expert in handling the translation and localization projects, and offers a vital key to help you do business in the smooth and comfortable way.
