Profile:

A diligent, intelligent, and dedicated student seeking admission into a UK university for my second year undergraduate studies. Aspiring to become a law student, I possess a strong academic background and have excelled in various subjects such as criminal law, contract law, English legal system, torts law, and public law during my international foundation year. With a passion for justice and a drive to make a difference, my ultimate goal is to contribute to the field of law and promote positive change in society.

Education:

- Liham High School, September 2016 - June 2021
- Oxbridge Tutorial College, January 2022 - June 2022 (Foundation Year)
- Oxbridge Academy, January 2023 - May 2023 (International Year One)

Achievements and Leadership Experience:

- Merit Distinction Award after completing my international foundation year
- Head Girl at Liham High School, where I developed problem-solving, time management, and leadership skills
- Active participation in public speaking, which enhanced my listening abilities and communication skills

Community Involvement and Activism:

- Founder of the Okobaba Project, a non-governmental foundation focused on providing shelter and food for over 500 beggars and their children in an incomplete building in Okobaba, Lagos, Nigeria
- Internship at the Nigerian Immigration Service from November 2021 to January 2022, gaining firsthand experience in the field
- Social media activism, advocating for global issues such as Ukraine and Russia, the Middle East, and Boko Haram in Nigeria
- Featured author in the book "Who am I?, Who are you?, Who are we? Tales by Us Three," which I co-wrote during my time at Oxbridge

Languages:

I am fluent in English and proficient in five Nigerian languages: Arabic, Kanuri, Fulfulde, Hausa, and Yoruba.

Personal Statement:

I am a dedicated and ambitious student with a strong desire to excel in my academic pursuits. Through my various experiences, I have developed valuable skills such as leadership, problem-solving, and effective communication. As an aspiring law student, I am passionate about creating positive change and contributing to the legal field. My involvement in community projects and my internship at the Nigerian Immigration Service have further enriched my understanding of societal issues and my commitment to making a difference. I believe that my unique background and diverse skill set make me a valuable candidate for admission into a UK university for my second year undergraduate studies.
