Professional and international experience / Experience as a Volunteer

2010-2013 Indonesia	Global coordinator and communications officer for the Indonesian NGO Anak – Aid to Indonesian Children, whose main goal is to educate impoverished children. I promoted the organization, researched funding, helped in the career orientation of sponsored children, and assisted in communication between the Indonesian and European offices. My posting (which ends in August 2013) was made possible thanks to an agreement between the Volontariat de Solidarité Internationale (Volunteers of International Solidarity) and the Service de Coopération au Développement (Cooperation and Development Service (a French NGO)).
2009-2010 Thailand	Mathematics and Philosophy teacher for the final year of high school in Chiang Mai, Thailand.
2008-2009 USA	High school Math teacher and assistant Math teacher at the French School in Portland, Oregon, USA. I also set up the International Baccalaureate program at this school.
2007-2008 Indonesia	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Studied Indonesian language at Undiksha University in Singaraja, Indonesia through the Darmasiswa scholarship programme for foreigners provided by the Indonesian government.</li><li>• Volunteer at the Indonesian NGO Anak (aid to educate impoverished children) in Indonesia.</li></ul>
2006-2007 Indonesia	Math, Physics and Chemistry teacher for Grades 7 to 10 at the International French School in Bali, Indonesia.
2003-2006 Cameroon	Math, Physics and Chemistry teacher for Grades 11 and 12 in the Science Department of a rural high school in Bandjoun, Cameroon. This was possible thanks to an agreement between the Volontariat de Solidarité Internationale and the Catholic Delegation for Cooperation (a French NGO).
May-Sept. 2002 Tahiti	Air Tahiti engineering intern at Faa'a international airport, Tahiti. I reorganized the maintenance programmes of the territorial fleet (8 planes) belonging to Air Tahiti (the number 1 company in French Polynesia with 1000 employees).
1999-2002 France	Volunteer educational assistant in an impoverished area of Toulouse, France. I assisted in all subjects from grades 7 to 10.
