

HARU FILGUEIRAS

TRANSLATOR

I'm a Brazilian with lots of personal experience in writing and translating novels to English, I do so since 2019 and I'm currently able to write directly in English with no major difficulties. I attended English classes from 9 to 16 years old and hadn't stopped learning since so right now I have a C1 level of proficiency. I'm also very keen on proofreading and rarely leave mistakes behind. I'm searching to gain formal experience in translation, as well as acquire further knowledge in English language and in my interest areas.
