CAREER STATEMENT

A well presented, self motivated and confident young scholar who has extensive knowledge of Polish and English linguistics, cross-cultural communication and language pragmatics as well as of how to successfully assess and develop communication strategy and its implementation in a company. Having exceptional multi-tasking and organisational skills, all of which are imperative when working closely within a team or with other professionals. I am currently doing research in a global company in China, France and Poland on the influence of culture and environment on modes of thinking, perception, ways of communication, personal relations within a team and self-identification with a particular professional group.
