PERSONAL SUMMARY

I was born in November 1995. I have always been a dedicated, sociable, and self-confident person. I would consider myself as a highly motivated and hardworking individual, who is graduated from Translation and Interpretation Department in 2019. Seeking a job opportunity to build upon a keen interest and start a career with solid foundation. My career goal is to assume a role which allows me to take responsibility and show my currently present skills in coordination with working groups. Thanks to my management skills which I had improved during my education and work experiences, I am capable of managing multiple tasks effortlessly with full efficiency.
