About me:

I am a 'Native Hindi speaker' with great interest in the world of cinema. I have always been an intense reader, well read, who keeps pace with the time & technology. I belong to Central India, where Hindi is mother tongue & spoken in its purest form.

I strongly believe in perfection & punctuality and same reflects in my performance. I do not use any software or tools for my translation as it kills the soul of the original content & makes it emotionless rather mechanical. I am ready & capable of taking up any Hindi translation job of any level. I have always been a learner, with a creative approach. Giving a chance will prove my creativity & potential. Hoping to hear a positive reply from your end.
