

Terry Moran: outline CV

- 1955-62 Reading School
1961: State Scholarship, Major Open Scholarship to New College, Oxford
- 1962-66 New College, Oxford: Modern Languages (Russian, German)
1964-5: teaching English in Vienna
1966: BA Hons in Modern & Medieval Languages, class 2 (undivided in those days)
- 1966-69 New College, Oxford: research in Soviet Literature
1967-8: post-graduate exchange student at Moscow University; appointed leader of British group by British Embassy
- 1969-72 University of Strathclyde, Glasgow: lecturer in Russian
Established joint degree in Russian & Politics
Translated patent material on a variety of subjects for Fitzpatricks, patent agents
- 1972-80 University of Limerick, Ireland: founding head of European Languages
1974-6: headed the university's Co-operative Education program, which placed all students in paid employment for a total of 12 months of a four-year degree course
1975: founded Babel, the first translation agency in the West of Ireland
1978: elected Education Officer (Ireland), ASTMS (later MSF, then Amicus, now Unite), to plan and run training courses for trade-union representatives
- 1980-93 Financial services, successively:
1980-82: sales associate (i.e. life-assurance salesman), Allied Dunbar
1982-84: senior consultant (i.e. successful life-assurance salesman), Sun Life Unit Services
1984-86: product designer/broker manager, British National Life (Citibank)
1986-88: independent financial adviser; and
- 1988-93 Wessex Asset Management Ltd (authorised unit-trust manager, member of LAUTRO, IMRO and the UTA): founder and managing director
Frequent press articles and speeches attacking most financial services as fraudulent
Launched the first unit-trust mortgage in April 1988, converting it to the first PEP mortgage on Budget Day 1989
Company ran out of money waiting for the world to beat a path to its door
- 1987-2001 Management consultancy: several assignments for major financial-services clients of the Winchester Consulting Group, Marti Oliver Associates, the Millennium Group.
- 1993-present Freelance translator and interpreter
Institute of Translation and Interpreting: Associate, 1994; Member (by examination), 1997
- Interests* Investment, practical and theoretical (i.e. my money and other people's)
Politics & current affairs
Music, passive and active (piano, clarinet, choral/solo singing)
Literature, passive and active; theatre; the Arts; culture with a capital K
Food and wine
Education (what's wrong with it)
Cosmology
Everything, more or less, except incest and folk dancing
Mensa – joined 1995, IQ: 160 (please don't hold this against me).
- Personal* Born 24 November 1944, divorced, significant other; one daughter, two granddaughters.
- Contact details: Le Moulin d'Ays phone: +33 563 94 34 40
82150 Montaigu de Quercy e-mail: t.moran@new.oxon.org
France